NEW DELHI: Sayan Chaudhry and Dhruv Khurana from Delhi Public School, Rohini, bagged the first prize in TCS IT Wiz quiz held recently at Indian Institute of Technology, New Delhi. Over 1,300 students from various schools of Delhi and NCR took part in the competition.

Bharat Kashyap and Shiven Mian from Delhi Public School, RK Puram, came second in the contest which is open to students from Classes 8 to 12.

Both teams received specially designed trophy and medals. The six finalists also received an array of prizes such as space pack, earphones, USB pen drive and speakers among others.

Participants were quizzed through a mix of interesting questions on technology concepts such as software based, gamification and animation. The focus this year was on technological trends.

An interactive Twitter contest was also organised during the event to engage students in the social media outreach programme. The student with highest tweet point across 14 cities will win a trip to Mumbai to witness mega finals of the TCS IT Wiz quiz.

The highlight of the regional finals was animation-based quiz software with a unique format created by Quizmaster Pickbrain and his team. Anil Shastri, chairman of Lal Bahadur Shastri group and Debashis Ghosh, head, TCS (North) felicitated the winners.

IIT to host Delhi leg of TCS IT Wiz

The Delhi edition of Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) IT Wiz, 2014, the biggest inter-school IT quiz programme in the country, will kick off on Saturday at the Indian Institute of Technology-Delhi. The quiz, which is open to students from Class 8-12, is being held across 14 locations in India — Ahmedabad, Bangalore, Bhubaneswar, Chennai, Coimbatore, Hyderabad, Indore, Kochi, Kolkata, Lucknow, Mumbai, Nagpur and Pune. Each school can send 10 teams of two members each. The quiz will also be held on Twitter — TCS tweetwiz — for all participants, where three questions will appear on screen and students will tweet their answers on a given twitter handle. The quiz will focus on the applications of information technology, trends, legends and other emerging areas.

in the 131-strong field are defending champion Wade Ormsby of Australia, home stalwarts 2002 Order of Merit champion Jyoti Randhawa and two-time Asian Tour winner SSP Chowrasia, among others.
